

Joining the Campbell Society

Our Campbell Society recognizes all those who have notified us that they have included the Foundation in their will or other deferred giving plan. The name honors the Foundation’s founder, Judge R. Paul Campbell. He was determined to establish a community foundation for Centre County and recommended that everyone consider leaving a legacy through the Centre County Community Foundation.

Here’s how to join the Campbell Society – just two steps:

1. Arrange your estate to leave a gift to CCCF.

Note: We recommend that you discuss these options with your family and with your attorney, accountant, insurance agent or financial planner as may be appropriate. You may also contact the Foundation office to discuss the various ways to leave your legacy through the Community Foundation.

2. Inform the Centre County Community Foundation that you have made the necessary arrangements by returning this form. This will give us permission to include your name in future listings of Campbell Society members.

I/We have made a provision for the Centre County Community Foundation in my/our estate plans and wish to be included in the Campbell Society. I/We agree to be included in published listings of the Society’s members.

_____

please print names(s) as you wish to be listed

_____

Signature Date

If you so desire, you may designate funds to receive gifts from your Campbell Society commitment; however, you are not obligated to do so.

- I desire to designate my Campbell Society giving to the following fund(s):

FUND(S)

- I desire the Centre County Community Foundation to use my Campbell Society giving at its discretion.